

2.2

Leaving a message 2

Worksheet

A Answer the questions.

- 1 Which is more polite?
a) I want to speak to Masae Makata, please. b) I'd like to speak to Masae Makata, please.
- 2 Fill in the gap and explain the meaning: _____ the line, please.
- 3 You might hear I'm sorry but she's in a meeting at the moment. Think of some other reasons why the person is not available:
I'm sorry but she's _____
I'm sorry but he's _____
- 4 A receptionist might say I can put you through now. What does this mean?
If you want to speak to a particular person or department, you say Can you put me through _____ extension 366, please? What is the missing word?
- 5 It often sounds better to replace OK by O_____ c_____ or Cer_____ or S_____e.
- 6 You can confirm a letter of the alphabet by using a country or city name. Fill in the missing word:
That was 'E', E _____ Egypt.
- 7 Fill in the missing letters in these phrases used to check if the message is finished.
Is there a _____ g e _____ e ? ▶ No, _____'s all.
▶ Yes, there's s _____ ing e _____ e.
- 8 To finish a call in a friendly way the caller can say Thanks for y _____ he _____ and the receiver can say Thank you for c _____ g.

B Read the dialogue below. Try to improve it.

Receptionist	Caller
1 Good morning. IMB.	▶ 2 Mr Costa here. I want Mary Hershey, please.
3 Wait. Not here. Want to speak to secretary?	▶ 4 Yes, please.
5 I can connect you now.
Secretary
6 Accounts Department. I am Gina.	▶ 7 Mr Costa here. I wanted to speak to Mary Hershey.
8 Not in office. Message?	▶ 9 Yes. I'm calling about your last invoice. There is a problem. I must speak to Mary soon.
10 OK. Invoice number?	▶ 11 AI386
12 What?	▶ 13 AI386. Have you got that?
14 Yes, I've got that. More?	▶ 15 No.
16 Maybe she'll get your message.

C Now practise a similar call without using your notes. Caller use your real name and a different invoice number.

