

2.9

Office furniture

Business Builder
Teacher Resource Series

Worksheet

Student A: Customer

You want some new furniture for your office. Your company is called McGill & Sons Limited and your address is 15 Beauleigh Court, London NW3 5HZ.

Call 1

Make a call to a supplier of office furniture. Ask for a quotation for:

- 2 executive armchairs
- 16 conference room chairs (Note: You want these chairs in your company's colours. You can send a sample to show the exact colour.)
- 4 typists chairs

A few weeks later ...

Call 2

Make another call to the supplier. You have not heard anything since your last call. Find out when the chairs are going to be delivered.

A few days later ...

Call 3

Receive a call from the supplier.

Student B: Supplier

Your company supplies office furniture. Your main products are:

- | | | |
|--------------------------|-----------|--|
| ■ Executive armchairs | £800 each | |
| ■ Conference room chairs | £300 each | (customers can choose their own fabric colour) |
| ■ Typist's chairs | £150 each | |

Terms

- Discounts available for large orders.
- First-time customers pay 25% on order, with the balance 30 days after delivery.
- Cost for customer's own fabric colour is 50% extra.

Call 1 Receive a call. A customer will phone about some of your products. Try to get an order. Don't forget to write down the customer's name, company name and address for your files.

A few weeks later ...

Call 2 Receive another call from the customer. You are having a few problems obtaining the colour he/she wants.

A few days later ...

Call 3 Make a call to the customer. The workers in the textile factory that make the fabric are on strike. Explain that there will be a short delay.

