Bargaining and closing

Worksheet

- A The table below shows starting positions for two sides in a negotiation about product X. Work with a partner. Negotiate until you reach agreement on all the issues.

	Customer wants	Supplier wants
Price	£20 per unit	£22 per unit
Quantity	3000 units a month	4000 units a month minimum
Terms	30 days after delivery	50% with order, 50% after 30 days
Advertising	help with costs of a special promotion	to give no help with the promotion

- B Complete the table with words from the box.

If we ...	If we agree to ... , are you happy with (8) _____ ?
If you ... confirming	If you can ... , then we can close the deal. OK, it's a deal!

- C The mini-dialogues below are based on the negotiation in section A. They use phrases from the table.

Customer: If you can lower the price a little, then we can look at increasing our order.

Supplier: Well, that might be possible, but we need an order of at least 4000 units.

Supplier: If we agreed to payment of the full amount after 30 days, you would have to give us a bank guarantee.

Customer: OK, we can agree to that. Now, what about the question of some help with our special promotion? Could you help us there?

Write four similar, separate mini-dialogues based on the negotiation in section A.

- | | |
|--|-------------------------|
| 1 Customer: make a proposal | Supplier: react (yes) |
| 2 Supplier: make a proposal | Customer: react (no) |
| 3 Customer: make a proposal | Supplier: react (maybe) |
| 4 Supplier: try closing (If we ...) | Customer: confirm |

- D Look at the negotiation in section A again. Work with a new partner and/or change roles. Negotiate until you reach agreement on all the issues.
