

1.9

Saying no

Business Builder
Teacher Resource Series

Worksheet

A Fill in the gaps using words from the box.

isn't sure policy inconvenient actually afraid manage so

Negative reply

Is this your first visit to Bucharest?

► No, it (1) _____, actually. I was here last year.

You speak German, don't you?

► No, I'm (2) _____ not.

Disagreeing

Your brother's quite like you, isn't he.

► Do you think (3) _____?

She seems happy in her new job.

► Really? I'm not so (4) _____ about that.

Refusing an offer of help

Do you want a hand?

► No thanks, I can (5) _____.

Would you like me to carry those?

► No, it's all right, thanks.

Refusing a request

Could you give me a lift to the station?

► (6) _____, it's a bit (7) _____ right now.

Can I pay in cash?

► I'm sorry, but it's against company (8) _____.

Emphasis

Will there be any delay?

► No, of course not.

Cover the replies with a piece of paper. Chain comments and replies round the group.

B Write a no reply to the following questions. Add an example of your own.

1 Have you got last year's figures with you? ► No, sorry, I haven't. I can fax them to you tomorrow.

2 Coffee? ► _____

3 You always have a siesta in Italy, don't you? ► _____

4 Would you be willing to give us a discount? ► _____

5 Hot in here, isn't it? ► _____

6 Can I let you know by next week? ► _____

7 Shall I call you a taxi? ► _____

8 _____? ► _____

C Work with a new partner. Cover the replies you wrote in section B. Ask each other the same questions and reply naturally.