Pacific City – Host to the World Games

Pacific City is the third largest city in your country. A few years ago Pacific City was host to a major international sports competition, the World Games. The event was a great success.

It is now several years after the World Games and you are a journalist who writes for a national newspaper. You are writing an article with the title: Pacific City: does it have a future? Make a telephone call to the Director of Marketing for Pacific City. Make some notes during the call.

- Local economy. How did the World Games affect employment in Pacific City? And what is the employment situation now?

- Hotel use. How is Pacific City using the large number of hotels built for the World Games? Are there a lot of empty rooms?

- New companies. What advantages are there for companies thinking about moving to Pacific City?

- Future plans. Does Pacific City have any plans for future development?
