

2.4

Exchanging information 2

Worksheet

- A Sometimes you need to fill the silence while you look for something. Put these words in the correct order. Put a comma where you would pause.

- 1 Right see let just me Right, let me just see.
- 2 Hold check on just a moment I'll _____
- 3 Sorry I'm looking this just about _____
- 4 Bear moment me for with a _____
- 5 I'll you put hold on _____

And when you find the information:

- 6 Oh here is yes it (singular) _____
- 7 Right are they here (plural) _____

- B Your teacher's desk is disorganized. Listen to your teacher looking for something. Then ask a partner to wait while you look for something in your file.

- C You will make a call to find out some information. To prepare for the activity:

- 1 Write a question to ask your partner about a previous lesson: something he/she has to look for in his/her file, eg a particular word or answer that you want to check.

Can you _____?

- 2 Write a question which makes your partner leave the phone, eg ask him/her to look on the noticeboard, find out something from the teacher, or find something in a dictionary.

Could you _____?

When you are ready, make a call to a partner. Ask your two questions and reply to your partner's questions. Use the phrases below to help you.

Silence fillers while looking

Right, just a second, let me see, ...
Sorry about this, I'm just looking, ...
Just bear with me for a moment.

Going away from the phone

Hold on a moment, I'll just check.
Bear with me, I won't be a moment.

When you find the information

► Right, here it is.
Right, here they are.

When you return

► Right, sorry to keep you waiting.