

7.5b

Persuasion 1

- C The extracts below are from advertisements in business magazines, but the techniques of persuasion are the same for presentations. Identify the technique(s) using a–d. The first one has been done for you.
- a Questions
 - b Repeating sounds
 - c Repeating a word/pattern of words
 - d Using opposite words/contrasting ideas
- 1 Where do you need to be? How will you get there? Does it matter? Yes, it matters. The journey is the destination. Singapore Airlines a, c and d.
 - 2 Wouldn't it be amazing if sending a package across Europe could be as simple as sending it across town? UPS
 - 3 So easy to enjoy, so hard to forget. Singapore Tourist Promotion Board
 - 4 From Chips To Ships. Hyundai
 - 5 All that listening leads to understanding. And understanding is the first step to improvement. Phillips
 - 6 Where Luxury Comes As Standard. Budget Car Rental
 - 7 Wherever you are, whatever you're doing, you want to stay in touch. In touch with work, with friends or with loved ones. ... Thanks to our past we give you phones with a future. Panasonic
 - 8 Two companies. One team. No problem. British Steel
 - 9 Discover Bangladesh. And let your business boom! Bangladesh Board of Investment
 - 10 When it comes to your Conference, our priorities are your priorities. Monaco Promotion
 - 11 We have the will, a will shared by 56,000 men and women. ... We have the resources, with offices in 23 countries, on 4 continents. ... It is this will, it is these resources, that will help us achieve our ambition. AXA
 - 12 Failure. Finances. Future. Digital
 - 13 It has 32 valves. It develops 290 bhp. It's the finest 4.0 litre V8 production engine ever released. ... Don't dream it. Drive it. Jaguar
 - 14 Where do you want to go today? Microsoft
 - 15 Information passes freely, ideas are shared, individuals become a team. Lotus
 - 16 We deliver to clients all over the world, where they want it, when they want it. DHL
- D Choose some examples from section C and practise speaking them. Use your voice to give maximum impact, like in a presentation. Think about:
- where to pause
 - which words to emphasize