

8.4a

Dealing with complaints

Worksheet

A Fill in the gaps using words from the box.

mistake batch properly repair matter sample handling isolated credit record processed inconvenience fault

- 1 I'm sorry, it's not our responsibility. The problem must be due to bad _____.
- 2 Could you send me a _____ of the faulty product?
- 3 All these products have the same problem. They all come from the same _____.
- 4 I really am very sorry. Our Accounts Department made a small _____ when they _____ your order.
- 5 If you return it, we'll send a replacement immediately or give you a _____ note.
- 6 I'm just calling to let you know that our Production Manager is looking into the _____ at the moment, and he'll call you tomorrow.
- 7 The machine isn't working _____.
- 8 I'm sorry again for any _____ we have caused.
- 9 This machine has a _____. How long will it take to _____ it?
- 10 It must be an _____ case, we have a very good _____ for quality.

Write C next to phrases said by a customer. Write S next to phrases said by a supplier.

B Think of three complaints that a customer might make about your products/services. Write the customer's actual words. Write your replies for each complaint.

- 1 Complaint: _____

Reply: _____

- 2 Complaint: _____

Reply: _____

- 3 Complaint: _____

Reply: _____

C Exchange this paper with a partner who now becomes your customer. Take turns to be customer (who reads the complaints) and supplier (who deals with them). Continue each conversation until the customer is happy.