

8.9

Selling mobile phones

Worksheet

Student A: Supplier

You are the Area Sales Manager of Konnekt, an international mobile phone manufacturer. Your best selling phone for business clients is model 7800. It can access the Internet. You will receive a call from a customer who wants to buy a large number of these phones. Before you start, decide on the information below.

- Your company (history? size? experience in the market?)
- Main features of model 7800
- Guarantee
- Price per unit
- Minimum order
- Delivery time
- Terms of payment

Student B: Customer

Your company wants to give a good quality mobile phone with Internet access to all its middle and senior managers. They need to contact each other and head office easily at all times. You are responsible for seeing what is available. Your first call will be to the Area Sales Manager of Konnekt, an international manufacturer of mobile phones. Call to find out more information about their company, products, prices and terms. Ask lots of questions, but don't enter a detailed negotiation or make any decisions.

Notes

