

9.1

An introduction to negotiating

Worksheet

A Match the words with the definitions:

- | | |
|----------------|---|
| 1 a deal | a something given by one side in order to reach an agreement |
| 2 an outcome | b a mid-position where both sides accept less than they really want |
| 3 a concession | c a result |
| 4 a compromise | d the final agreement at the end of a negotiation |

- Notice that we say to do a deal (process), to make a deal (final result), to make a concession, to reach a compromise and to reach an agreement.

B Fill in the gaps using words from the box.

discount outcome increase compromise concessions reduce bargaining deal high short flexible terms

The process of making and reacting to offers in a negotiation is often called (1) _____.
A price can be too (2) _____ or too low. A delivery time can be too long or too (3) _____.
Terms of payment can be very strict or more (4) _____. To reach a (5) _____, both sides may have to make some (6) _____.
For example, the supplier might have to (7) _____ the price or increase the (8) _____.
The customer might have to (9) _____ his order. If the (10) _____ is successful, both sides will be able to agree (11) _____ and say It's a (12) _____!

C Commercial negotiations cover a range of areas. Match each area on the left with a definition on the right.

- | | |
|------------------------------|---|
| 1 prompt payment discount | a a reduction to help launch a new line |
| 2 quantity discount | b a reduction available for pre-payment or payment soon after delivery |
| 3 promotional discount | c a reduction available for the purchase of large amounts |
| 4 delivery time | d sole rights in a geographical area |
| 5 exclusivity | e how long the goods will take to arrive |
| 6 terms of payment | f financial conditions for a sale |
| 7 minimum order | g the cost of delivery |
| 8 guarantee/warranty | h the correct way of doing something |
| 9 length of contract | i the smallest number of items that can be supplied |
| 10 transport costs | j a promise of quality, or that faults will be repaired |
| 11 penalty for late delivery | k an extra discount because the goods arrive at the customer's premises after the agreed time |
| 12 procedure | l how long the business agreement will last |

D Talk about the type of negotiations you have in your job.

- What type of negotiations do you have?
- Which negotiating areas in section C are important for you?
- Are there any other areas not included in the list?