Worksheet

Student A: Employee

Negotiate your salary increase for next year. As always, the economic climate is difficult, but you want a reasonable increase. Prepare your role carefully before you start.

- You joined the company three years ago.
- Last year inflation was 5%. Your salary increase was 3%.
- You have had new responsibilities this year and your department has performed well. Your company believes in motivating good workers – that's why you joined.
- Inflation is currently 4%. The market situation is better this year.
- Other workers in similar jobs have recently agreed on a 5% increase.
